

A Thought That's Related to Our Mission.

Some people teach.
Others heal.
Some make roads.
Others make laws.

We are merchants.
That may surprise you.
But that's what we do.
We sell things.

And we can be proud of what we sell.
Because we sell things that enrich people's lives.

Like education, health care,
musical instruments, sporting gear,
beautiful vacation spots, lovely plants
and other worthwhile products.

So, in effect, through our work
here at The Phelps Group, we do teach, heal, make music
and help make the world a better place.

Our mission is written on our walls and our business cards.
It adds meaning to our associates' lives and the agency's existence. We are inspired by it. New associates and clients come to us because of it.
